NARRATIVE:

Guerrero, a documented member of the Artesia Chivas gang, has an extensive criminal history that began at the age of 21. He has been convicted of battery with serious bodily injury, inflicting corporal injury on spouse, willful cruelty to child, possession of marijuana, trespassing, parole violations, vehicle theft, and fugitive from justice. Guerrero served multiple state prison terms, the longest a two (2) year prison term for inflicting corporal injury on spouse. Guerrero was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on August 18th 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109), the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2013 after Guerrero absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Guerrero qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for corporal injury on spouse meets the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang member status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
